SS 26 COLLECTION

We are keeping things elegant this summer season adding three fine merino wool worsteds to our lightweight cloth collections.

A few seasons ago we developed an interesting echo weave structure featuring an almost mysterious wave effect across the cloth in shimmering purples. This proved to be a great success so we have brought the design back in colours suitable for dashing nights out or even weddings. We've called this surreptitious design Spectra.

The 'Spectra Ink' cloth is woven with a royal blue yarn alongside a dark navy. The two shades of blue give an almost pulsing effect on the cloth. The weight is around 11oz or 350g, perfect for tailoring a suit which keeps its shape in all weathers. Blue is a universal colour for clothing and can be paired with everything making it a very versatile choice, especially when travelling in the summer with limited luggage.

Our 'Spectra Bottle' worsted features a rich bottle green similar to a dark emerald tone. This interacts with the navy yarns in a very pleasing way creating a shimmering wave that is hard to define. Rich greens are interesting colours to wear and make a refreshing change from greys and neutrals. They elevate tailored looks to a luxurious level and the Merino wool drapes in a most pleasing way.

We have named the final design 'Spectra Bordeaux' by adding a lively ruby tone to the echo weave. The navy and crimson yarns join to produce a purple play across the fabric. Maintaining the same cloth weight of 11 oz the Spectra Bordeaux exudes an up tempo feel suitable for joyous occasions.
